REUNION WEEKEND HIGHLIGHTS

As you can see from the reunion weekend schedule, the school is providing a host of great activities for the weekend. Here are some highlights:

- An intimate Class Dinner on Friday evening at the Shaker campus. This is the time to reconnect and share memories from the past 55 years! Cocktails and appetizers will be served in the Checkered Hallway. Dinner will follow in the Pickands Living Room.

- Be a Student Again – Take mini-classes with US faculty members on Saturday morning. Following class, attend Meet the New Headmaster for conversation and questions with Headmaster Ben Rein and members of the Board of Trustees.

- 125th Anniversary Celebration at the Hunting Valley campus. Join all other reunion classes as we celebrate this exciting milestone with cocktails and dinner at the Hunting Valley campus on Saturday night after the Four School Reception at Laurel.

ATTENDEES

So far, we’ve had a great response for the weekend. Although the list is still growing, we hope to reach the same number as our last reunion weekend! Don’t miss out on the fun this time around.

1961 REUNION GIFT

Reunion is a natural time reflect on the impact US made on all of our lives. We would like to put together a meaningful class gift in honor of our 55th. As you think about giving back, we hope you will consider at least doubling your annual fund gift and pledging for five years. Also, please keep in mind, our reunion gift can include not only outright gifts, but also gifts made through your estate plans (bequests). We will send giving information under separate cover. Stay tuned for more information!

US REUNION APPAREL

To commemorate our reunion, the school is making several items available for purchase through the school’s Prep Shop. These items can all be monogrammed with Reunion 2016 and Class of 1961. To view available items and order online, please visit us.edu/reunion beginning on March 1st. To ensure delivery by Reunion Weekend, please order by April 15th.
